

Hello! We are Grant and Marisa. We are both Colorado natives, and we met at CSU in 2008 our freshman year of college at a campus casino night. Friends introduced us, despite resistance on both sides, but we have been together ever since. We love spending time together and we are truly best friends. We knew after just two months that we wanted to get married and have a family, but we needed to finish college first. After four and a half years of dating and having adventures together, we were finally married in the same church where Marisa's parents were married.

Three years later we were blessed with a sweet baby girl we named Cora. She is truly the best thing that we have ever done together, and we love her so much we just want more children. Unfortunately, we suffer from secondary infertility and have not been able to have another biological child. Even before we knew about our infertility, we always said we would adopt if we couldn't get pregnant again because we couldn't picture a life without more children.

Cora very much wants to be a big sister too, and she would be so good at it! We have already seen this by how she treats and interacts with her younger cousins. She was made to be a big sister, and she can't wait for that day to come. We are all so excited to finally complete our family through adoption.

Please know that we have been praying for you and the precious life inside you that you may be safe and be led by God as you make this decision. We want you to know that if you place your child with us, we will continue to pray for you in our family prayers every night. This child will always know of your courage, strength, and the incredible love you have for them. Placing your child with another family is a difficult decision. Do not forget this as you make this hard decision.

"No one has greater love than this, to lay down ones life for ones friends." John 15:13.

By choosing life for this child and choosing to give them the best life you can, you are not only showing them love but us too! We will never be able to thank you enough for laying down your life for this child and us. We promise to honor you and your great love by loving this child with our whole hearts.

You are truly the answer to our prayers, and God has led both our families to this point in time so that we may expand our hearts and families to one another. For this reason, we believe openness would be good for all parties, and we would be happy to maintain an open relationship however you are comfortable. May God bless you as you make this decision and may our prayers give you strength and peace.

With Love, Grant & Marisa
